The Treaty with Nicaragua.

WASHINGTON, April 20. In relation to Nicaraguan affairs many speculations are indulged in, and some of the statements concerning them are doubtless unintentionally erroneous. The true state of the question is ascertained to be that less unintentionally erroused.

s'ate of the question is ascertained to be that the treaty recently returned is with one exception entirely acceptable to this Government, which has heretofore agreed to its provisions. The exception is to the amendment which, in substance, provides that the United States shall engage to use due vigilance and all lawful means to prevent the organization of the provisions of the country of th ance and all lawful means to prevent the organization of hostile parties in this country for the invision of Nicaragua. This is not considered important, but if ultimately rejected by the President, who has it under consideration, no doubt is entertained the the treaty will be modified as an accordance of the consideration of hostile parties in this country for the invision of Nicaragua and this consideration, no doubt is entertained the consideration, no doubt is complete.

DAVID HARKRADER, Proprietor. HAVING SUCCEBBED J. P. KLINE to the proprietorship of this well-known and popular Holel. I has determined that its good remission with the police shall not in the least be disminished under my superintendence. The house has been thoroughly resided, and every possible convenience added to every feparament. The Stable, as heretofore, will be in charge of caseful hostices.

I Nestiring from the "Prankin," I take this methor of recommending my friends and patrams of the House while under my administration, to the neproprietor, who will extend to them all the courfustes due from a landlord to his guests.

In this connection I offer my discare thanks to macquisintaness and the great public, that has so low extended to me a generous friendship and liber patramage.
